Defend biodiversity!

Thousands of fruits, vegetables, animal breeds, cheeses, cured meats, breads, and sweets are disappearing. When they disappear, we also lose knowledge and culture.

This shared heritage of biodiversity must be preserved.

Slow Food is collecting these disappearing flavors within a global catalog called the Ark of Taste.

You can help us too!

Nominate a product by filling out the form on our website:

www.fondazione Slow Food.com/en/the-ark-of-taste

Or take a picture and share it on your favorite social networks using the following hashtag:

#arkoftaste

And add this easy information:

- The name of the product
- The place where it is produced (mainly the country, but also the region, the valley, the villages where the know-how is passed down from generation to generation)
- The characteristics of the product (shape, color, size, taste, etc.), its history and the reasons why it is important to save
- How it can be cooked, in what traditional recipes it can be used

co-financed by the European Union

The project of the Ark of Taste is developed with the collaboration of the University of Gastronomic Sciences
